What is IFRS 2013 The Red?

Background and Development

IFRS 2013 The Red was issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) in 2013 as an amendment to existing IFRS standards. Its primary goal was to enhance the disclosure requirements related to fair value measurements, improve transparency, and ensure consistency across financial statements globally.

This standard earned the nickname "The Red" due to the color of its cover document, a practice common among IFRS updates to facilitate easy identification.

Why the Name "The Red"?

The moniker "The Red" is more than just a nickname; it reflects the standard's branding and helps distinguish it from other IFRS amendments. It also symbolizes the importance and urgency of the updates contained within, emphasizing the need for entities to adapt swiftly to new reporting requirements.

Key Objectives of IFRS 2013 The Red

Enhancing Fair Value Measurement Disclosures

The core aim was to improve disclosures surrounding fair value measurements, helping users of financial statements better understand the assumptions and inputs used.

Promoting Consistency and Transparency

By clarifying measurement techniques and disclosure obligations, IFRS 2013 The Red sought to foster uniformity across industries and jurisdictions.

Addressing Changes in Market Conditions

The standard was also developed in response to the evolving nature of financial markets, ensuring that reporting standards remained relevant and reflective of current economic realities.

Additional Disclosure Requirements

Entities are now required to disclose:

- The valuation techniques and inputs used for Level 3 measurements
- Transfers between levels of the fair value hierarchy
- The sensitivity of fair value measurements to changes in unobservable inputs

Impact on Financial Reporting Practices

Enhanced disclosures allow investors and analysts to better assess the reliability of fair value measurements, leading to increased confidence in financial statements.

Increased Complexity and Reporting Burden
